6 Weeks' Course in Public Speaking Is Offered in Chicago

Chicago: The Educational committee of The Chicago Association of Credit Men, of which George E. Hedman, Kester Solder Company, is chairman, is conducting a short course in "Effective Public Speaking," starting Thursday evening, November 15 and running for six consecutive Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Adolph G. Pierrot is the instructor and the class meets at Association headquarters in the Merchandise Mart. Mr. Pierrot holds degrees from several prominent universities and is an outstanding educator in this particular field.

The class in "Credits and Collections" also conducted by the Educational committee closed with a complimentary dinner to the students Monday evening, November 5, in the Embassy Room at the Morrison Hotel. Chairman Hedman presided and introduced the speakers, H. H. Faulstich, the First National Bank of Chicago, president of The Chicago Association of Credit Men, and Secretary-Manager, James S. Cox.

Petroleum Group to Meet Feb. 11th-13th

Chicago: The annual meeting of the Petroleum Division of the National Association of Credit Men will be held at the Congress Hotel in this city on February 11th, 12th, and 13th. Members are urged to make hotel reservations as promptly as possible for this important meeting. It was found necessary to postpone the meeting originally scheduled for last October until this time on account of crowded hotel conditions.

St. Paul—Henry H. Heimann, Executive Manager National Association of Credit Men, addressed a record attendance at the dinner meeting of the St. Paul Association of Credit Men on Tuesday evening, November 13. As usual, Mr. Heimann presented some very clear and useful thoughts on the economic future of business problems.

Bridgeport Women Celebrate First Anniversary Dec. 19th

Bridgeport: The Bridgeport Credit Women's Group celebrated their first anniversary on December 19th, at the Y.W.C.A. Banquet Hall. This session was devoted entirely to entertainment. Among the special guests on this occasion were Miss Lillian Guth, chairman of the National Credit Women's Executive Committee; Miss Marion King of New York City, a member of the National Credit Women's Executive Committee, and Miss Marie Ferguson of the National Staff, N.A.C.M., Secretary of the National Credit Women's Executive Committee; also Mr. Alford C. D. Bennett, a past president of the Bridgeport Association. These four are now designated as the sponsors for the Bridgeport Credit Women's Group. At the close of the dinner meeting a large birthday cake with a single candle was presented, and it fell to the lot of Miss Anna Mae Dean to blow out the single candle.
